

There's A Fishy December 31, 2025

There's a fishy that's talking to you.
There's a fishy that can squawk too.
There's a fishy that knows how you feel.
The only problem is that this fishy's not real!

You might feel cheated that there's not more to my verse.
You might want to jump up and down and curse.
Just remember that if you were the fish,
you'd be grateful not to be staring up from a dish.
